COMPANIES TO IRRIGATE LANDS

Irrigation Companies Incorporated for Two New Mexico Projects.

Santa Fe, N. M., Jan. 27.—Incorporation papers have been filed today by the Portales Land and Development company of Portales, Roosevelt county, which will irrigate 15,000 acres by pumping. The capitalization is $25,000 and the incorporators are: T. J. McLean, W. E. Lindsey, Ed J. Neer, W. O. Oldham, G. M. Williamson, G. V. Johnson, W. I. Linkart, G. W. Carr, S. T. Bedy, C. P. Mitchell, John R. Hopper, India Humphrey, W. T. Jackson, J. M. Fossard, J. B. Friday, J. B. Sledge.

The Capital Securities company, of Santa Fe, has acquired from Jay Turley all of his water rights on the San Juan and tributary streams and will go to work at once to construct the first unit of a great irrigation system, the first unit to consist of 20,000 acres upon which colonies will be settled. H. L. Hollier, of Chicago, who has colonized the Twin Falls country in Idaho, has taken hold of the San Juan project which, when completed, will involve the expenditure of several million dollars.

SPORTING NEWS

SOLDIERS DEFEAT EL PASOANS AT BOWLING

Capt. Walton the Hero of Day and Saves Troopers From Defeat.

Capt. Walton was the hero of the battle of the bowls (not holes) which was fought at the fort Wednesday. Had it not been for this fearless officer of the fighting 19th, the invading forces from the lowlands would have taken the soldiers captive and returned to their camp with their severed scalps as well as those of the heroic defenders of the fort on their wampum belts, or whatever kind of belts the braves from the Os-Aple tribe wear when they go on a gunning for the palefaces.

It was the five men match which the El Paso bowlers had begged the troopers for which caused all the trouble. Not content to allow the Fort Bliss bowlers to leave for the Philippines with the championship of the city to their credit, Chase, Herfort, Bryan, Sukerman and Houck challenged the soldier team for just one more chance. "Please give us just one more chance to wallop you," the local bowlers begged. "With some little few please," sang the soldiers of the merry 19th.

A Sad Tale.

Now comes the sad part of this tale. With sparks shooting from his finger tips, Capt. Walton slammed the balls over the post alleys until there was not a pin which might not have been mistaken for a new brand of breakfast food, so badly chewed up were the pins. The captain bowled 246, yes, that is the correct figure, 246, for his first game, made it 229 for the second, then stubbed his military toe and rolled but 197 in his third game. But even at that there were 672 points to his credit when the game was over, a sufficient number to win the match for the Fort Bliss team.

Tonight, after the Texas telegraph tournament at the Y. M. C. A. the same teams will bowl on the association alleys. The El Paso team is still hoping to beat the soldiers just one single little time before they leave for the islands.

THE WEATHER.

Forecast.

El Paso and vicinity: Tonight and Friday fair and colder.

New Mexico: Tonight and Friday fair.

West Texas: Tonight fair, colder; Friday fair, colder in south portion.

Weather Conditions.

The center of the storm has moved from the upper Mississippi valley to the vicinity of Lake Ontario, and snow is falling in the lake region.

With the exception of some snow in northern Nevada and rain in Oregon, the reported precipitation of the last 24 hours was wholly in the northeast.

In the Mississippi valley the temperature has generally fallen 10 or more degrees.

A weak barometric depression occurs over central Texas, while an area of high pressure, central near the junction of Nevada, Idaho and Utah, covers the country between the Rocky mountains and the Pacific, and fair and somewhat colder weather will prevail at and in the vicinity of El Paso tonight and Friday.

WILL THE FIGHT BE CALLED OFF?

Considerable Stalling Is Noticeable and There Is Some Skepticism.

New York, N. Y., Jan. 27.—After months of stalling on the strength of the fight agreement, and when the expected battle between the black and white men had begun to lose its glimmer, the announcement that the Jeffries-Johnson fight may be declared off, has been made here. The dispute and expected break between Tex. Rickard and Jack Gleason is given as the reason.

The two fighters are said to be taking sides with each of the promoters as to the place for holding the fight. Jeffries siding with Gleason and Johnson with Rickard. Should such a rumor prove to have any basis of truth, the skeptics who have been looking upon the proposed fight arrangements as being not altogether a square deal will be given a chance to get an "I told you so" or two out of their systems.

Ben Reitman Is Breaking Out

Emma Goldman's Advance Agent Holding a Hobo Convention.

Ben Reitman has broken out again. The professional hobo, self styled "king of the hoboes," who was in El Paso with Emma Goldman, whom he claimed as his wife or worse, had in pure socialistic state, is cutting up once more. This time it is a mass meeting of hoboes in Chicago, although "Doc" calls it an uplift convention of the unemployed, "being a college grad, and a social worker, and a present professor, that of living without the necessity of working."

Reitman was in El Paso last year as the advance agent of Emma, the exponent of everything typified in the expression "ragin' the government," and he remained here till Emma got here. Reitman, who is a graduate of the Louisville Medical college and a man of culture (once removed) arrived several days in advance of Emma, the fire eater, who he referred to always as "Miss Goldman," although he said that they were as much man and wife as their self made laws of life would permit. "There is no marriage nor giving in marriage in Socialism," Reitman said in answer to a direct question whether Emma G. was his better half or not.

Reitman, assisted and abetted by James Eads How, is holding a convention of the chronic unemployed, the opponents of the government, and the dignity of labor" boys and the "they toil, neither do they spin" sons of rest. Chicago, much against her "I WOP" civic motto, is the goal for the gathering of the jungle camp gang. The purpose of the organization, as described by Reitman, is the uplift of the man out of work, whether it be because of his own inclination or the economic conditions.

GOLD MEDAL CONTEST.

The third gold medal meet will be held at the Y. M. C. A. gymnasium Friday evening. These gold medal events are being held during the winter and the athlete making the highest number of points in the series will receive a gold medal. The first intermediate medal contest for the younger boys will also be held Friday evening preceding the older boys' contest which starts at 8 o'clock.

GOTCH TAKES ON BECKER.

St. Joseph, Mo., Jan. 27.—Frank Gotch has signed articles to meet the only other exponent of the mat zang besides Dr. Roller, who has a M. D. handle to his name. The match is to occur on March 7 in the St. Joseph auditorium, and will be between Gotch and Dr. Becker, known as the Australian giant.

JOCKEY SHILLING FAILS TO PILOT THE WINNERS

Rider for Bedwell Stables Has an Off Day—Blagg Wins Handicap.

It was Carroll Shilling's day off Wednesday at the track. After his brilliant ride on Knight Deck and his string of cleverly won victories the Bedwell boy failed to put over a single winner Wednesday, although he was up in every race and rode four close money favorites in the races yesterday. Having a strong following among the men who play the jockey stronger than the horse, Shilling gave his friends a taste of the "it's all going out" end of the game.

But two of his horses got in position at the finish to cash a place bet and these were Pajaroita and Joe Ehrlichin, the second and fourth races. Shilling rode but two of the Bedwell entries Wednesday, Pajaroita and Hannibal Bey, neither of which was ready. In the sixth race the jockey rode one of his own mounts, Goldway which is being trained by his brother, J. M. Shilling, and raced under his name.

Blagg, from the Lee stable, won the overnight handicap from a field of six. Pajaroita, with Shilling in the saddle, was not good enough to beat Blagg in his present condition. The winner laid off in the early race and when ready ran over his field to the finish. Pajaroita was second and Elizabeth Harwood, interferred with in the early stages, finished gamely just inside the money.

WOMAN'S CHARITY OUTLINING WORK

Meets to Prepare Plans for Operations Along the Old Lines.

There was a meeting of the Women's Charity association board this morning in the rooms that have been occupied by the Associated Charities in the basement of the courthouse, and future work of the charity was discussed by the board.

Mrs. W. W. Turner, the president, said plans were being formulated for the future work of the charity along the lines of its original operations—among women and children—and that Mrs. Hills would probably take back the work, as she did before the Women's Charity became merged with the Associated Charities work.

Mrs. Turner said that plans had not yet been completed for quarters and the future operations of the charity.

The letter of the women declining to act further in the matter of distributing the city and county charity fund, because it is too small for the needs of the work, was read to the city council today and they were tendered a vote of thanks by the council for their past efforts. The mayor said he did not blame them for giving up the work, but the city could not afford to allow any more money.

Mrs. Harrison Quits.

Miss Fannet Harrison, who was superintendent of the Associated Charities, has resigned and given out the following letter of resignation, which shows some bitterness.

El Paso, Tex., Jan. 21.
To the Executive Board of the Women's Associated Charities:

After two and a half months' trial as superintendent of your society, I find it impossible to carry on the work in the manner of the associated charities which was conducted. Many things are not brought to a successful finish because of the constant dictation from the board.

I do not give your superintendent the prerogatives, which are due the officer. The scope of the society is extremely too narrow. Many matters should be taken up and many things investigated. Simply giving out food, clothing, etc., small donations, is in no way improving the living conditions of any one family. Your society does not take up the broader problems for which I have been trained, so I ask that you kindly accept my resignation to take effect one month from date.

Fannet Harrison.
